CYNTHIANA, KY.

The Louisville Riots.

The bloody scenes which transpired in Louisville on the day of the recent State election, are the subject of universal comment. Each of the political parties is endeavoring to fasten upon the other the responsibility of those scenes of outrage and carnage.

The whole evidence produced, as to the commencement of these riots, establishes the following facts.—That, during the entire forenoon, the election, at all the polls, passed off without any personal collisions or demonstrations of personal violence, whatever.—That about the middle of the day, when it was ascertained that the victory of the American over the foreign party was complete, a simultaneous attack was made, by Irish and German assassins, in different parts of the city, and in quiet streets remote from the places of voting, upon the persons of inoffensive Americans, quietly passing along the streets, by firing upon them from the windows of houses and from behind walls, and killing and wounding many of them.—And that not until these outrages were perpetrated upon the persons and lives of their countrymen, did the Americans make a single attack upon the person of any foreigner.

The retribution that followed these acts of cowardly assassination was terrific.—Americans, maddened and infuriated by the sight of the blood of their murdered countrymen, and friends, and relatives, sacked and burned the houses from which the shots were fired; and took summary and awful vengeance upon their inmates. As is usual when a populace is fired with infuriated rage, by such wrongs as had been suffered by the Americans of Louisville, neither moderation nor cautious justice was observed in the prompt retribution inflicted. Every good and law-abiding citizen deplors the acts of fearful violence, to which the Americans were instigated, by the fury of their exasperated feelings. But, at the same time, it is upon the foreign miscreants, who caused all these scenes of bloodshed and conflagration, by their cowardly and fiendish attacks on American citizens, that the execrations of an outraged community should be heaped.

The American people should learn a solemn and momentous lesson from these lamentable occurrences. They point to the dangers arising from the presence of vast hordes of foreigners in our communities—the danger of fierce and fatal collisions between populations so irreconcilably antagonistic, as the American and the foreign races—the danger of domestic insurrections and civil wars from the outbreaking of the fierce and untamed passions of ignorant and lawless foreigners, when stung by defeat at our elections—the danger of the subversion of all public order and safety, by the violence of insolent aliens to our soil, impatient of the sway of Americans, exercised on their own territory, and in accordance with their own constitution and laws.

The increasing frequency of such outbreaks, where large masses of foreigners are located, cannot but lead us to expect that they will become general and constant, if the immense emigration of the offshoots of Europe to our shores be not soon checked.

The only effectual remedy against these vast and alarming dangers, from the emigration of the very refuse of the European populations to this country, is to close our ports against it. We say, shut down the flood-gates against this tide of foreign corruption, and roll it back to the old world from whence it flows.

This is the policy and purpose of the American party. Its platform goes for the exclusion of all except "honest and well disposed emigrants." The strict and effective application of this rule of discrimination, will repel nine-tenths of the present emigration.

What patriotic American, who is not blinded by party spirit, will refuse to unite with the American party, in saving the country from the incalculable evils which must inevitably result from the continuance of the inundation of foreign paupers, criminals, and anarchists, which has been flowing into the country, with an ever increasing volume, for years past?

We learn from our Millersburg correspondent, that the Americans of that "ilk" celebrated the recent victory in this State by an illumination on Saturday night, last. There have been three deaths from cholera in that town, during the last week, and three new cases.

Ex-Governor Shannon, of Ohio, has been appointed Governor of Kansas Territory, in place of Dawson, of Pennsylvania, who declines. We shall expect Pierce to keep him straight—for Pierce's appointments, as a general thing, "won't do to bet on."

How has the American Party been beaten in recent State elections?

How has the American Party been beaten in recent State elections? By American voters? Not at all. It has been in every instance, by a few newly imported voters. By the importation of Irish and German voters, at the rate of one hundred thousand, per year, the voice and will of the American people are silenced and thwarted at the ballot box. In every one of the recent State elections in which the American party has been defeated, it has had an overwhelming majority of Americans on its side; but their votes have been killed and overwhelmed by the votes of a few thousand Irish and German adventurers, who undertake to control our government before they have had time to learn its first principles.

With this fact before them, the members of the American party, in those States have not the slightest disposition to succumb—to relinquish the fight for Supremacy in their own country. The majorities by which they have been overcome are too despicable, especially in the materials composing them, for them to be awed or intimidated for one moment. They will never strike their colors before a foreign foe. To the voice of a majority of their own countrymen they could cheerfully bow in acquiescence, but not to the dictation of Ireland or Germany. So long as a spark of the spirit of 1776 or 1812 survives in their souls they can never submit to such dictation as that.

Many false reports are circulating through the country about the small-pox in our town. So far from its raging here to an alarming extent, it has almost totally disappeared, there being not more than ten cases in the town, and they are all old ones.

The cradle is a woman's ballot box.—Lucy Stone.

But some of them put in two votes at once, which is illegal.

The Pope and Civil Power.—O. A. Brownson writes to the New York Times that the Pope is the proper authority to decide whether the Constitution of this country, is or is not repugnant to the laws of God. In other words, the Pope shall say whether the Constitution shall be respected and obeyed, or not.

We are indebted to that genuine American, and accomplished gentleman, M. L. Broadwell, for a basket of the largest and finest tomatoes we have ever seen. One of them weighed 2 1/2 lbs.—Such tomatoes are a good thing—a devilish good thing.—BONUM OVUM!

We take the following handsome notice of the Paris Hotel, from the Louisville Democrat. The compliment to the house and its management is as just as it is well expressed:

THE PARIS HOTEL.—During a recent visit to the inland city of Paris, Ky., we experienced the kind care and substantial comforts that are ministered to all the guests of that old established house, the "Paris Hotel." The senior proprietor, Charles Talbott, Esq., is known throughout Kentucky, and deservedly enjoys the esteem of every person who has been fortunate enough to partake his kind hospitality, or co-operate with him in the offices of a private citizen.

The active duties of the Hotel and general business management, are under the supervision of Mr. Jesse H. Talbott, a thorough, courteous gentleman, who understands the exact manner, and fully carries it out, of bestowing delicate kindness, that begets a feeling that you are at home, and leaves nothing to be desired in the way of personal attentions. We must not fail to notice the servants.—They have been raised in the family, and a portion of them can very justly be called "old family servants." Their careful attention and faithful execution of every order, attest their perfect training and fitness for their necessary duties. "Uncle Walter" is the acknowledged head of this efficient body, and we believe no one ever bids Uncle Walter good-bye, without saying "here are comfortable quarters for you."

We clip the following from a Cincinnati paper. We wish to keep our farmers posted with reference to the grain market of that place:

GRAIN.—The demand for Wheat has kept up fully with the supplies, and the market is firm at $1.25, for good samples. Purchases are being made for export. A large portion of the Grain now coming forward was previously sold so that the offerings, compared with the receipts, are light. Corn is now coming in pretty rapidly, and the demand having fallen off, prices are giving way.—The market opened at 75c, but 900 bushels sold yesterday at 70c, and buyers were very scarce at that figure.—Oats have largely declined, and the market closed dull at 25c, with a considerable stock, and only a limited demand. In addition to the receipts by public conveyances, there is a great deal coming in by wagons. Barley is unsettled. Brewers are offering only 70c to 75c. Very little received at yet. Rye has declined to 70c to 75c, brewers generally offering over the inside rate.

The Congressional Delegation of this State will stand six Americans, and four Sag Nicks.

The Wheat Crop.

Never has there been such an abundant yield of wheat, in this county, as the present crop. Speculators from the North have been in our midst for several weeks, engaged in buying up large quantities. It is estimated that over fifty thousand bushels of wheat have already been shipped from this county, and an equally large amount is lying in the fields ready for threshing.

Over one hundred thousand bushel of wheat have been sold by our farmers in the last three weeks, at 90c to $1.00 per bushel, making nearly $100,000 that has been thrown into circulation in our midst. Well may our farmers rejoice, for Providence has crowned their labors with "an abundant harvest." GLORIA PATRI—GLORIA MUNDI!

At the last accounts from Col. Kinney, he and his men, with their weapons and their surveying instruments, were within a short distance of the point of their destination. No doubt the Colonel is engaged by this time in surveying the fifteen hundred square miles of territory that he claims as his own. Probably he thinks he can say with Alexander Selkirk: "I am monarch of all I survey."

Elkhorn Association of Baptists. This Association is now holding its annual session at Bryant's Station, in Fayette county; and will close to-day.—Rev. Mr. Helm, preached on yesterday, a very able and eloquent sermon. Several ministers are in attendance; among them, Revs. Joseph R. Barbee, Thomas H. Ford, Lewis, Dillard, Pratt, Link, and others.

The cholera has entirely disappeared from Nicholasville, Jessamine county. We regret to learn of the death, at that place, of Rev. N. B. Waller, Joseph H. Waller, and three of the latter's children.

Good! Our old friend Gen. Boswell, of the "Leesburg Nation," will accept our thanks for a bottle of Old Bourbon. We understand that the Gen. has 10 barrels left, which he will sell.

Later from Mexico.

NEW ORLEANS, August 13. The Nautilus has arrived, with dates from Brownsville to the 8th instant, and from Galveston to the 10th.

The Delta's correspondence contains the official accounts of the capture of Saltillo, after two days' fighting.—The Government troops numbered 1,200 and had five pieces of artillery. The Revolutionists lost 38 men. Two-thirds of the Government troops were killed, wounded and taken prisoners.

The Revolutionists were in pursuit of the retreating army. Woll had reinforced Matamoros from Tampico. The force of the Revolutionists now amounts to 3,000 men and 11 pieces of artillery, the latter under the command of Col. Duncan, late of the U. S. Army.

Woll had destroyed the suburbs of Matamoros, and many of the citizens had left for Brownsville. The Revolutionists are sanguine of success.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13.

Colonel Steptoe, instead of being in Carson Valley, as the newspapers have recently stated, awaiting the reply of the President to his proposed conditional acceptance of the Governorship of Utah, was on the 12th of July, at Benicia, California, with his command.

More than 200 persons from the fever-infected districts in Virginia, have arrived here within the last week, and two have died.

The Hon. Wilson Shannon accepts the Governorship of Kansas, and will depart forthwith for that Territory.

From Havana.

NEW YORK, August 14.

The steamer Crescent City arrived this morning with advices from Havana to the 8th inst. All the Crocotas in Cuba, who have become citizens of the United States, have been ordered to leave the Island forthwith.

The Vomit was raging among the troops at Porto Rico, and 1500 had died.

Midshipman Cain died of the Yellow Fever on board of the Falmouth, on the passage from Key West to New York.

Our friend Joseph Lucas informs us that the citizens of Leesburg and vicinity, will give, in the course of a month or two, a good old fashioned American Pic-Nic. Notice of time will be given through the 'News.'

Our correspondence will have to excuse us, for the reason that our space is limited, and that our readers demand election news.

We copy the following from the Shelby News:

A farmer in this county, has had a German from Louisville working for him for some months. He is a strong Sag-Nick, and some weeks before the election, he informed his employer that he must go home to vote; and received his pay. He went to Louisville; and, during the week before the election, he returned, re-employed. On being asked: why he did not remain in the city until after the election? he replied, that all the German and Irish boarding-houses were full—men sleeping all over the floors; that they had been brought there to vote against MARSHALL; and had plenty of money and whisky. He was of the opinion that they had no right to vote; and if they undertook to vote, there would be a fight, and so he returned to the county.

Hon. William Preston passed through this town yesterday. His usually serene brow was somewhat clouded.

DRUNKENNESS.—In Sweden a man who is seen four times drunk is deprived of his vote at elections. In Kentucky the oftener a man gets drunk the more he is respected—by some!

MARRIED.

On Thursday last, the 9th inst. by Rev. Fletcher Whiteker, Mr. Ezekiel Rowlands to Miss Jane Beckett, all of this county.

On the 5th inst., by Elder Joseph Sipe, Mr. George Brown, of Millersburg, to Miss Julian Franklin, of Harrison co. Ky.

From the Presbyterian Herald.

Died, in Lexington, Ky., July 19th, BEN. DESHA, only son of Dr. John R. Desha, in the fifth year of his age.

The deceased was in many respects a remarkable boy. An only son, the pride, the all but idol of his parents, we would not have been surprised to see him self-willed and wayward in his conduct. To us, under such circumstances, is the usual result; in him, however, we find the very reverse—a character altogether lovely and exemplary, a dutiful and affectionate son, tender and devoted brother, a kind and agreeable companion. He had just passed the fourteenth year of his age; yet already had he attained a manliness of character, a correctness and firmness of moral principle, a degree of intelligence and self-control, truly remarkable in one so young. This was no doubt, in great part, owing to the manner of his education; he had been brought up almost entirely under home influence; his parents were his daily instructors and companions, the society which he received above all others to prefer; and the valuable lessons which they inculcated were not, therefore, as in too many instances, frustrated by the corrupting influences of the street, but securely treasured in his mind, and thus early imprinted in his life.

When he came to his last illness, his sufferings, which were great and unusually protracted, were borne with a patience and fortitude that have seldom been equalled. During his sickness, he was often engaged in prayer, and the night before his death, perfectly conscious of his condition, and in the possession of all the powers of his mind, he made a calm, clear and intelligent profession of faith in Jesus Christ, and at his own request received the ordinance of Baptism. Afterwards he called into his room all the members of his family, and bade them a tender and affecting farewell, making request of his father particularly, that he would try and meet him in Heaven. There was no triumph, no exultation in his feelings, but the most child like and implicit confidence in the mercy of God and the sufficiency of Jesus Christ as his Savior. There seemed to be no regret, no manner of fear in his death, but a calm, patient, prayerful waiting for his summons. He died almost without a struggle; his end was peace, he has fallen asleep in Jesus.—May God in his infinite mercy sanctify this heavy affliction to the present and eternal good of the bereaved and heart broken parents.

Died, on Thursday, August 2d, 1855, SALLIE SMITH, wife Martin Smith, aged 64 years 3 mos.

DIED.

August 6th, of typhoid fever, after an illness of one week, in the nineteenth year of his age, BRO. JOSHUA T. CROW, son of Rev. James C. Crow, for some time a member of Oddville Division, Sons of Temperance; also, a worthy and highly esteemed member of the M. E. Church, South.

Having lived an humble and faithful Christian, he died in the hope of a blissful immortality. The Division to which he belonged adopted the following preamble and resolutions:

WHEREAS, In the mysterious providence of an all-wise God, our beloved brother J. T. Crow, has been suddenly removed from among us by death. Therefore,

Resolved, That in the death of Brother Crow, this Division has lost a worthy and efficient member; and community a highly respected citizen.

Resolved, That we tender our warmest sympathies to the family and friends of our deceased Brother.

Resolved, That this Division wear mourning thirty days in memory of Bro. Crow's decease.

Resolved, That a copy of the above be forwarded to the Editor of the Cynthiana News for publication; also, a copy be presented to the family of the deceased.

Select Male and Female School.

THE Subscriber, having rented the large and convenient School Room, recently occupied by Mrs. Ormsby, would respectfully inform his friends and the public generally, that the next session will commence on Monday, 3rd, of September.

The course of instruction will be thorough and extensive, and the discipline of the school as every lover of good order will commend. In the application of the word "select," above, he wishes it to be distinctly understood, that the School is to be "select." Just so far as Moral Virtue is concerned, for none need apply for admission, who cannot come prepared to stand the test, in reference to moral deportment, located in every well-regulated School, for the good of all parties. The most diligent application to study, both at school and at home, will be required; and each pupil will be expected to feel a solemn obligation to act conscientiously in the discharge of every reasonable regulation; otherwise, expulsion as the alternative may be, a dismission will be the inevitable result. A sense of duty towards his patrons will compel the subscriber, to tolerate a course of idleness in no other—A vice unappreciated too prevalent in the present day, and so destructive of the best interests of the rising generation. As a working man, happy only when surrounded by busy, industrious pupils, the subscriber will gladly receive all such as are anxious by a noble emulation, to gain an enviable distinction in School, and elevate themselves in the esteem of their friends and disinterested community. A hearty co-operation on the part of parents in all, is asked to insure a successful and gratifying issue to the labors of the ensuing session.

Terms as usual. Deduction allowed only for prompt payment.
